Flower Arranging

Fresh Flowers!

During these dark January days, what better way to brighten up our home than with beautiful displays of fresh flowers. The residents at Ty Llandaff Care Home have been busy arranging gorgeous bouquets in a variety of vases, adding a splash of colour to the communal areas.

Ukulele Lessons

New Experiences

Our maintenance manager, Peter, has been teaching the residents at Ty Llandaff Care Home how to play the ukulele, and they are absolutely mastering it. Peter's music lessons have been a hit among the residents, with many of them keen to learn and improve their musical skills. The cheerful melodies of the ukulele have brought joy and entertainment to the care home, creating a warm and friendly atmosphere.

Cardiff Dogs Home

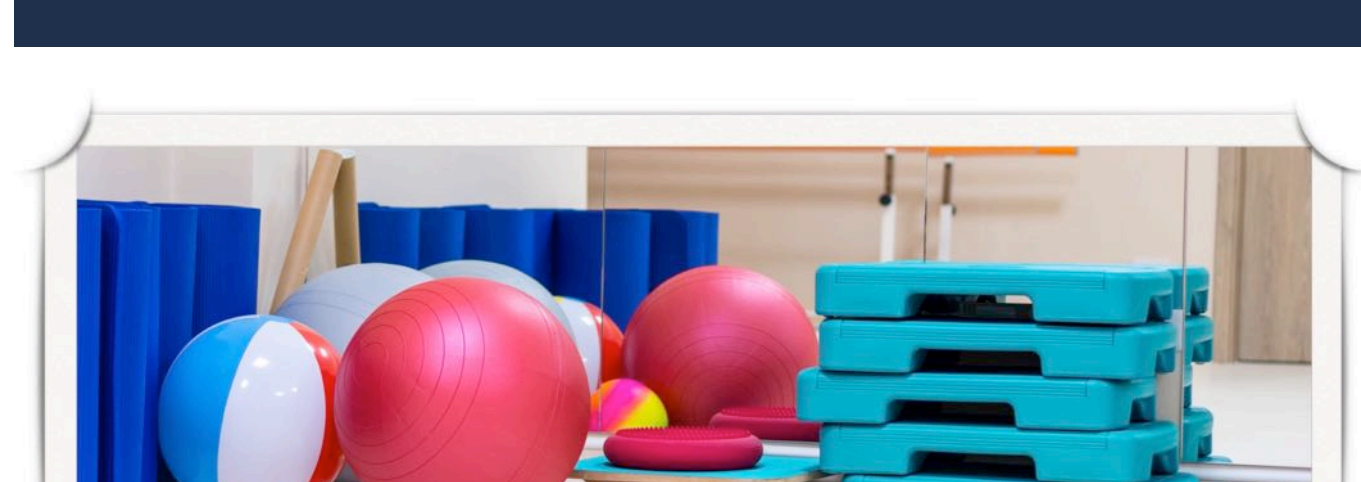

Furry Friend

We recently had the pleasure of visiting the Cardiff Dogs Home to deliver some treat cones to the furry residents. The visit was a huge success, and we even met the beautiful Doty, who the residents wanted to bring home! The experience was heartwarming and therapeutic for our residents, who enjoyed spending time with the dogs and giving them some love and attention. We're grateful to the staff at Cardiff Dogs Home for having us and look forward to visiting again soon.

Music & Move

Motion Is Lotion

At Ty Llandaff, we believe that staying active is essential for maintaining both physical and mental well-being. Our Music & Move sessions are a great way to get everyone moving while enjoying some good old-fashioned singalongs. Our residents love to participate in this fun and interactive activity, and it's always a great mood booster. The sessions help to promote a positive and active lifestyle while also having fun and socialising.

Edinburgh to Brighton Charity Cycle

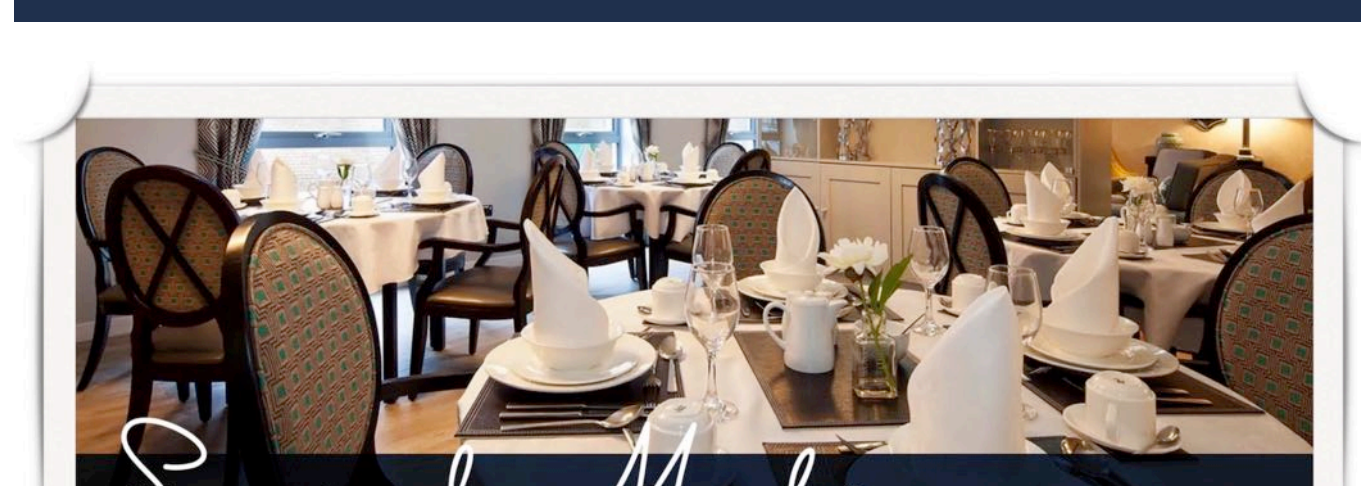

Fundraiser

Lee was a much-loved resident at Ty Llandaff, and in memory of him, his son Ross is completing a charity cycle from Edinburgh to Brighton in aid of our care home. We are honoured that Ross has chosen to support us in this way, and we're incredibly grateful for his efforts. If you would like to donate to Ross's cause, please click the link below. Every donation is greatly appreciated, and all proceeds will go towards improving the lives of our residents.
